Calderdale College Careers Education, Information Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) Policy

1 PURPOSE

To ensure learners and visitors of Calderdale College have access to high quality impartial CEIAG throughout their learning journey to enable them to make informed and accurate decisions, free from bias.

To work within Government guidelines and legislation to including the Gatsby Benchmarks; meeting the College's statutory duties in providing information relating to careers, up-to-date relevant and realistic pathways and options for consideration of those engaging with Calderdale College.

2 SCOPE

This policy applies to all types of provision including further and higher education, apprenticeships and traineeships irrespective of the location of provision. It is applicable to learners aged 14 and over and is inclusive of those with additional needs and Education and Health Care Plans (EHCP's).

3 DETAILS OF POLICY

1 Policy Statement

- 1.1 Calderdale College is committed to providing high quality impartial careers education, information, advice and guidance to learners and prospective learners across all aspects of the College's provision. Calderdale College strives to achieve local and national accreditation and recognition for the quality of the service provided. In 2018 in recognition of the high standards of impartial CEIAG delivered the Matrix Quality standard was re-awarded to Learner Services. In February 2019 validation for the Calderdale & Kirklees (C&K) Careers quality standard was achieved; measuring against the Gatsby Benchmarks. In addition to these specific awards, the Advice and Guidance Team's impact is measurable through external Ofsted Inspections and through the QAA standard for Higher Education.
- 1.2 The team will provide impartial guidance to support chosen careers but also aims to instil skills into individuals to equip them for the future, including how to map out their lifelong learning and the ability to access external careers guidance and support.
- 1.3 Calderdale College has embedded careers guidance into the learner journey regardless of the length of time spent at the College. It aims to identify those who are unable to continue on their chosen programme of study and to offer alternatives, either internally or externally, based on individual need. Calderdale College engages with parents and carers through events at the beginning, middle and end of the learner journey.

2. Objectives

- 2.1 The College's a mission statement is "to inspire learners to succeed in life and work." This CEIAG policy reflects the mission through the impartial guidance given based on the individual plans and needs to succeed on their chosen journey and most appropriate pathway for the learner to achieve.
- 2.2 The CEIAG policy is aimed to support the learners and prospective learners, employers and higher education networks. It also aims to address the priorities of the Gatsby report (2018) alongside the Local Enterprise Partnership (LEP) priorities, to develop both the local community and support the local economy.
- 2.3 The careers guidance process will take into account individual circumstances, learning preferences and aspirations to deliver a person-centred approach aimed to motivate and encourage learner's high aspirations and setting realistic goals to enable high levels of achievement and social mobility.
